

Careers In Math

To learn more go to : www.vacareerview.org

Mathematics studies neighborhoods, groups and free groups, rings, ideals, holes, poles and removable poles, trees, growth ...

Mathematics also studies models, shapes, curves, cardinals, similarity, consistency, completeness, space ...

Among objects of mathematical study are heredity, continuity, jumps, infinity, infinitesimals, paradoxes...

Last but not least, Mathematics studies stability, projections and values .

http://www.cut-the-knot.org/do_you_know/index.shtml

You may enjoy a career in math if you like to:

- ___ Work with Computers
<http://www.mathapprentice.com/>
- ___ Enter Data
- ___ Make intricate paper airplanes
- ___ Solve puzzles
- ___ Play Sudoku
<http://www.funbrain.com/sudoku/Sudoku.html>
- ___ Create 3D art objects
<http://www.coolmath4kids.com/0-geometry-math-art.html>
- ___ Play computer games
<http://www.mathplayground.com/games.html>
- ___ Count and Save Money
- ___ Work with science and health information and data
- ___ Follow the Stock Market

Careers in Math.	Education Required	Average Earnings for VA
Actuaries	Bachelor's	$105,230
Biostatisticians	Master's Degree in Statistics or Math	$81,953
Financial Quantitative Analysts	Master's or Ph.D. In Math, Physics, with computer programming back-	$73,663
Mathematical Technicians	No Data Available	$78,830
Mathematicians	Master's or Doctorate is typically preferred.	$106,321
Statistical Assistants	Bachelor's is preferred	$42,622

Where to work?

Federal Government

<http://www.federaljobsearch.com/>

Virginia Schools Mathematics Majors

 J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College
www.jsr.vccs.edu/jsr_ms/

 University of Virginia
artsandsciences.virginia.edu/mathematics/

 Virginia Tech www.math.vt.edu

 Virginia Commonwealth University www.math.vcu.edu/

AT & T Research Research.att.com

<http://nasajobs.nasa.gov/>

Virginia Career VIEW VA Tech School of Education

Career Information Line: 1-800-542-5870